KENSINGTON VALLEY TRADING · CANDY RESELLER ACROSS SIX CORE CANDY SUBCATEGORIES · AMAZON US · 2026-11-09

Kensington Valley Trading: sales down 20% while its candy categories grew 5%

Seller Central sales fell to $12.80M over the last 12 months (-20%) while the six core candy subcategories grew 5%. The account kept its share where it owns the listing and the buy box (Terry's, Peeps, Russell Stover), and lost it where resellers joined its bundles and where 2025 lines (Ghirardelli, Lindt) were not carried over.

Oct sales $1.06M (-14% YoY) · 12 months $12.80M (-20%) · Six candy subcategories +5% · Buy box 57% (Oct) · Sessions -35% (12 months)

1. Overall

OBSERVATION

Seller Central sales were $12.80M from Nov 2025 to Oct 2026 vs $15.99M a year earlier (-20%); units -22% and sessions -35%. Jun-Aug 2026 (Prime Day window) $1.60M vs $2.52M (-37%). Account buy box averaged 47-57% from June to October 2026, down from 59-64% in 2025. The six candy subcategories its top bundles sit in grew 5% (Nov-Sep, estimates). No brand website: the account is a reseller and bundler of 38+ third-party brands.

DIAGNOSIS

The decline is the account's, not the market's. Three causes, in order: (1) buy box share fell 10-15 points as resellers joined the account's own bundle listings (16 sellers on Life Savers Wint O Green, 10 on Mamba, 6 on Sunsweet and Sixlets); (2) $3.31M of 2025 sales came from lines that sold nothing this year (Ghirardelli $965k, Lindt advent calendar, 173 catalog-unbranded ASINs $1.76M); (3) sessions fell 35% with 722 ASINs selling vs 1,270. Where the account controls the listing it grew: Russell Stover $1.34M (from $25k), Terry's $1.07M (from $63k), Peeps $952k (+423%).

OBSERVATION

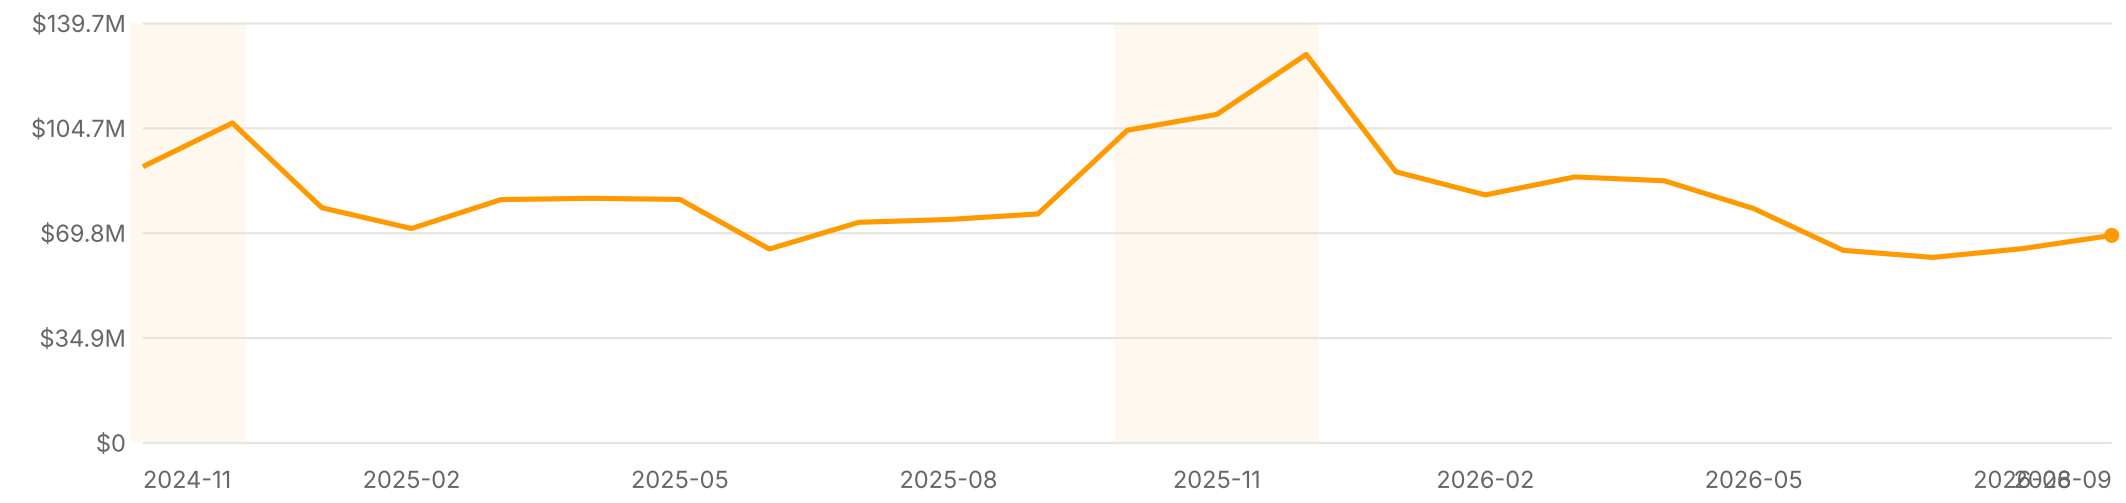

Every month from May to October 2026 is below 2025: Jun-Aug $1.60M vs $2.52M (-37%), Sep-Oct $1.62M vs $1.95M (-17%). Feb-Apr 2026 held flat ($4.60M vs $4.60M) on an Easter season led by Peeps and Russell Stover; March hit 34.9% conversion. October recovered to $1.06M (-14% YoY), with buy box back to 57%.

DIAGNOSIS

Conversion held at 15-22% outside March, so demand on the pages that are live converts; the loss is in sessions (-35%) and buy box (from 61-64% to 45-54% in Jun-Sep). Fewer live listings and more shared listings, not weaker pages.

4. The category: six core candy subcategories

Combined revenue of the subcategories the top bundles sit in (Gummy Candies, Hard Candy, Candy Mints, Toffee Candy, Candy & Chocolate Bars, Chocolate Candy Assortment Boxes), Nov 2024 to Sep 2026. Nov-Dec shaded. Nov 2025-Sep 2026: $925M, +5% on the same months a year earlier. Peeps (Marshmallows), All Sport (Popsicles & Juice Bars) and Sunsweet (Fruit Juice Beverages) sit outside these six.

OBSERVATION

Subcategory growth Nov-Sep: Candy Mints +19%, Candy & Chocolate Bars +8%, Gummy +4%, Toffee +1%, Hard Candy -1%, Chocolate Assortment Boxes -3%. Jul-Sep 2026 was -13% YoY across the six, so the late-summer slump is partly the market. Search demand is rising on the account's strongest brand terms: "sixlets" +115%, "terrys chocolate orange" +63%, "chocolate orange" +53%, "mamba fruit chews" +46%, "werthers soft caramel" +33%, "prune juice" +30%.

DIAGNOSIS

Estimated share of the six subcategories fell from 1.68% to 1.27% (Nov-Sep, Seller Central vs market estimates). The categories grew; the account did not. Brands it took on in 2026 (Russell Stover, Terry's, Hershey's, Jolly Rancher, Elmer) more than replaced the brands it dropped, but not the reseller losses on its 2025 bundles.

OBSERVATION

On "chocolate orange" the account holds organic #7, #8, #10 and #11 plus sponsored #3: 5 of the first 11 results, all Terry's bundles. On "prune juice" its Sunsweet 2-pack sits at organic #9 behind Sunsweet's own 48 oz bottle at $4.89 (#6). On "caramel candy" no account listing appears in the first 16; Werther's own 10.8 oz bag is organic #6 at $9.94 and the account's Werther's 2 lb was out of FBA stock.

DIAGNOSIS

The account wins where it holds a gift or seasonal format the brand owner does not sell on Amazon (Terry's 4-pack, Peeps Halloween 48). It loses on staples where the brand owner sells a larger bag for less (Life Savers, Sunsweet, Werther's): there, price per ounce, not content, decides the click.

OBSERVATION

Account buy box fell from 61-64% (Jun-Aug 2025) to 47-54% (Jun-Sep 2026), recovering to 57% in October. Mamba 2 lb went from 99.7% (May) to 45.8% (Aug) as 9 sellers joined; Sixlets 3×6oz from 98.9% to 75.2%; Sunsweet sits at 12-34% all year behind Next Day Shipping Store ($16.99 vs $19.99). Single-seller bundles hold 97-100% (Peeps, Stauffer's, Terry's, All Sport since September).

DIAGNOSIS

Bundles the account creates get copied within 3-4 months. Where the bundle is unique (seasonal mixes, new formats) the account keeps the buy box; on single-brand multi-packs of staples, resellers undercut it.

7. Pack sizes and pricing

No brand website: the account resells third-party brands, so packs are compared with the brand owners' own Amazon packs. Per unit = price per ounce or count.

OBSERVATION

On Life Savers and Sunsweet the account charges 2-3x the brand owner's price per unit for a smaller total quantity. On Werther's the 2 lb bag is cheaper per ounce than Werther's own 10.8 oz bag. Terry's 4-pack and Sixlets 3-pack have no brand-owner equivalent on page 1.

DIAGNOSIS

The bundles that hold sales offer a pack the brand owner does not (Terry's, Sixlets, Werther's 2 lb). Staples priced above the brand owner's bulk bag rely on shoppers not seeing it.

8. Inventory and stock cover

FBA inventory, Nov 9, 2026. Days of cover = fulfillable x 30 / units sold in the last 30 days. Top 12 bundles by 60-day sales.

OBSERVATION

Stauffer's animal crackers (55% conversion) has 1 day of cover; Peeps Halloween 3 days (seasonal, ending); Werther's 2 lb 0 fulfillable with 1,840 inbound; Jolly Rancher 3-pack 16 days, Sixlets 3×6oz 20 days, Sunsweet 21 days. Account-wide 150,106 units available and 128,332 inbound against 65,210 sold in 30 days (69 days of cover); 260 ASINs are at zero with sales in the last 30 days.

DIAGNOSIS

Account stock is ample in total; the gaps are on fast sellers. A stockout hands the buy box of a shared bundle to a reseller (Werther's showed OfficeTek on Nov 9), so stock gaps compound the buy box problem.

OBSERVATION

9 of 10 bundles have no A+, no video and no Brand Story: the account lists brands it does not own, so Brand Registry tools are not available. All Sport is the exception (brand-owned A+). Titles open with filler ("Delicious Classic Taste...") on Life Savers, Werther's and Terry's instead of the searched terms ("lifesaver mints", "caramel candy").

DIAGNOSIS

Content is limited to title, bullets and images. Those three are where the search gap sits: "lifesaver mints" (38,160/mo) ranks #30 and "caramel candy" (32,009/mo) is off page 1.

10. Subscribe & Save base and lifetime value

Value = active subscriptions x offer price per month (estimate, priced SKUs only; delivery intervals vary, so the true monthly value is lower). Current state only; no subscription history is available.

Measure	Value
Active subscriptions (all SKUs)	3,144
SKUs with at least one subscriber	428 of 2,801 offers
Subscriptions on suspended offers	617 (20%)
Subscriber deliveries due next 30 days	1,563
Monthly value estimate, priced SKUs (2,097 subscriptions)	$32,062
Share of October 2026 sales	3.0%
Discount offered (seller or Amazon funded)	0% on every SKU with subscribers

OBSERVATION

3,144 active subscriptions across 428 SKUs, with no discount offered (0% seller and Amazon funded on every subscribed SKU). 1,563 subscriber deliveries are due in the next 30 days. 617 subscriptions (20%) sit on suspended offers that cannot take new sign-ups, mostly out-of-stock SKUs. AMC shows repeat buyers rising from 21.6% to 29.2% of sales (Jan-Sep 2026).

DIAGNOSIS

About $32k a month (3% of October sales) recurs without any discount. Keeping subscribed SKUs in stock protects it; suspended offers lose subscribers silently.

11. Recommendations

High Buy box

OBSERVATION

Account buy box 47-54% in Jun-Sep 2026 vs 61-64% a year earlier; Mamba 2 lb fell from 99.7% to 45.8% as 9 sellers joined; Sunsweet at 12-34% all year.

DIAGNOSIS

The account's own bundles are copied by resellers and lost on price.

RECOMMENDATION

Run a daily repricer on the 20 bundles with 3+ sellers, matched to the lowest FBA offer within a margin floor; stop replenishing bundles where the floor is below margin (Sunsweet 2 × 32 oz at $16.99).

High Inventory

OBSERVATION

DIAGNOSIS

RECOMMENDATION

Stauffer's animal crackers 60 units (1 day, 55% conversion); Werther's 2 lb 0 fulfillable with 1,840 inbound; Sixlets 3×6oz 20 days; 260 ASINs at zero with recent sales.	Stockouts on single-seller bundles hand the buy box to resellers.	Replenish Stauffer's now and set 45-day cover targets on the top 50 bundles through December.

High Assortment

OBSERVATION	DIAGNOSIS	RECOMMENDATION
$3.31M of 2025 sales came from lines with no sales this year (Ghirardelli $965k, Lindt advent $227k, 173 catalog-unbranded ASINs $1.76M); 722 ASINs sold vs 1,270.	The holiday 2025 lines were not carried into 2026.	Re-list the Ghirardelli holiday assortment and Lindt advent bundles before Black Friday if supply exists, and rebuild unique seasonal mixes the brand owners do not sell (the Terry's and Peeps model).

Medium Search

OBSERVATION	DIAGNOSIS	RECOMMENDATION
"lifesaver mints" 38,160/mo ranks #30; "caramel candy" 32,009/mo not in the first 16; "chocolate orange" (21,485/mo) organic #7 with 5 of 11 slots.	Titles open with filler instead of the product type and searched terms.	Retitle the top 30 bundles: brand + product type + total weight + "Bulk, Individually Wrapped" in the first 80 characters.

Medium Pricing

OBSERVATION	DIAGNOSIS	RECOMMENDATION
Life Savers 2 lb at $0.65/oz vs the brand owner's 44.93 oz bag at $0.30/oz; Sunsweet 2 × 32 oz at $0.28/fl oz vs $0.10.	Staple multi-packs priced at 2-3x the brand owner's bulk bag.	Shift staples to sizes the brand owner does not sell (3 lb, 5 lb, flavor mixes) rather than smaller packs at higher unit prices.

Low Subscribe & Save

OBSERVATION	DIAGNOSIS	RECOMMENDATION
3,144 active subscriptions, 0% discount, 617 on suspended offers; AMC repeat buyers 21.6% to 29.2% of sales.	A recurring base exists with no incentive and leaks through out-of-stock suspensions.	Add a 5% Subscribe & Save discount on the 20 most-subscribed SKUs and restore stock on suspended offers with subscribers.
